Joshua Stafford, organist

Joshua Stafford is a full scholarship student at the prestigious Curtis Institute of Music and Assistant Organist at St. Mark's Episcopal Church in Philadelphia. Joshua has performed recitals across the country, including postlude concerts on the country's largest new concert hall organ at Philadelphia's Kimmel Center and a performance on the world's largest organ, the Wanamaker Grand Court Organ at Macy's in Philadelphia. A native of Jamestown, NY, Joshua began piano studies at the age of six. Joshua now performs on Naples' newest pipe organ, built in 2008 by Nichols & Simpson Organbuilders.

Tim Zimmerman
and The King's Brass

Tim Zimmerman and the King's Brass provide innovative worship for young and old alike through "the best in sacred brass music." For more than twenty years, they have performed over one hundred concerts each season with three trumpets, three trombones, a tuba, keyboards, and percussion. Hyacinth hosts two concerts, their first Christmas appearances in this area. And, Sunday morning worship at Moorings includes The King's Brass.

Westminster Concert Bell Choir
Kathleen Ebling-Thorne, Director

(Tickets for a post-concert dinner may be purchased at the church January 4-11.)

This ensemble of 14 handbell ringers is composed of undergraduate and graduate students at Rider University's Westminster Choir College. Hailed throughout the nation for its virtuosity, this dynamic ensemble performs with the world's largest range of handbells. Additionally, members supplement their handbells with a six-octave set of Malmark Choirchimes, the widest range in existence. The Westminster Concert Bell Choir has appeared on several holiday broadcasts of the "Today" show, and they have performed with Julie Andrews, Christopher Plummer, Charlotte Church and the Royal Philharmonic Orchestra in a critically acclaimed 15-city tour entitled "A Royal Christmas."

Vocal and Piano Concert
Christopher Bolduc, baritone
Charles Webb, piano

Thursday, February 4, 7:30

Christopher Bolduc, resident artist at the Academy of Vocal Arts, Philadelphia sings a program from opera to sacred. Born in Albany, NY he is a graduate of Purchase College Conservatory of Music (SUNY) and holds an honorary Performer's Certificate from Indiana University School of Music. His many competition awards include national semi-finalist in the 2007 and 2008 Metropolitan Opera National Council Auditions. Charles Webb is an acclaimed pianist, organist, and conductor. During his 24 years as Dean of the Indiana University School of Music, the department was placed at the top in three independent surveys. With this concert, Charles Webb brings the fifth rising star to Hyacinth Series.

John Rutter's Requiem Sunday, March 21, 9:00 and 11:00
Moorings Presbyterian
Chancel Choir with orchestra and dance

Richard Crofts, Director
Jeanie Darnell, soprano

Contemporary British composer John Rutter's widely performed Requiem brings profound meaning to our temporal existence and the life eternal. The lovely aural sounds with orchestra are further enhanced with the visual art of dance.
