

KENTUCKY DERBY

THE GRAND FINALE

Saturday, May 1, 2010 ~ 4-7 pm

at the home of Kathleen and Mike Hawryluk
5081 Tamarind Ridge Drive

Churchill Downs, which opened in 1875, is a significant place in the history of horse racing in the US and home of the Kentucky Derby, a race that every horse trainer and horse owner dreams of winning. The race is known as "The Most Exciting Two Minutes in Sports" for its approximate duration, and is also called "The Run for the Roses" for the blanket of roses draped over the winner.

Mint Juleps and assorted beverages, an abundance of d'oeuvres featuring Southern-Style Ham-and-Biscuits, a groaning board of cheeses, poached salmon, breads, home made finger foods, desserts galore, and the Hawryluks' infamous banana fritters, are sure to get you ready for the race. You won't need dinner!

Come horse around with your friends and watch the race in style!

Warning: Most Outrageous Hat Contest – with appropriate prizes
(Don't have a hat? Not to worry – hats and trimmings will be provided!)

Go east on Pine Ridge Road past I-75 to Logan Blvd. Go North on Logan for 2 blocks to Tamarind Ridge Drive, east on Tamarind Ridge Drive to house on left.
